

DUTCHESS COUNTY DEPUTY SHERIFF'S PBA ENDORSES MOLINARO

Union Recognizes Molinaro's Commitment to Public Safety

Poughkeepsie, NY – The Molinaro for Dutchess Campaign announced today that he has received the endorsement of the Dutchess County Deputy Sheriff Police Benevolent Association. Kenneth J Powers, President stated, "I am pleased to announce that our General Membership has voted to endorse Marc Molinaro's candidacy for Dutchess County Executive. We are grateful for his continued support of law enforcement and wish him the best of luck."

Molinaro said, "Public Safety is the responsibility of all elected officials and I am deeply gratified and proud to have the endorsement and support of our Sheriffs Union. Dutchess County has one the finest Sheriff's Departments in New York State and I am committed to ensuring that they have the support necessary to effectively do their job, keep our citizens safe and protect our quality of life".

Molinaro (R,C,I) is the Republican, Conservative and Independence Party endorsed Candidate. Marc lives in the Village of Red Hook with his wife, Christy (a Registered Nurse at Northern Dutchess Hospital); and two children, Abigail Faith (7 years old) and Jack Henry (2 years old). Election Day is November 8, 2011. For more information, visit Marc Molinaro online at www.molinarofordutchess.com or find him on Facebook and TWITTER (Marcus Molinaro).