November 7, Poughkeepsie - The Builders Association of the Hudson Valley has endorsed Assemblyman Marcus Molinaro's candidacy for Dutchess County Executive. Peter Berman of The Ruby Group is the BAHV 2011 Board President. Berman stated, "Our organization has rarely and only recently endorsed political candidates but Marc Molinaro has a proven record of understanding the homebuilding industry and we believe he will bring both an eager ear and business-friendly policies that we can rely on."

"On behalf of Steve Rieger of Rieger Homes and Chairman of our Government Affairs Committee, the Builders Association of the Hudson Valley is proud to endorse Mr. Molinaro; our region is constantly in need of strong, dependable and proven leadership and that's exactly what he brings to the table." said Scott Wohl, Executive Director for the BAHV.

"I am extremely grateful to be endorsed by an organization that is such an important part of the economic vitality and quality of life we enjoy here in Dutchess County and the Hudson Valley. The job creation and economic spinoff that the home building industry stimulates is critical for our families and small businesses. I want to thank Steve Reiger and Peter Berman for their support and look forward to working with them as Dutchess County Executive," said Marc Molinaro.
