

County Executive Molinaro to participate in Speaker Series at Grace Church in Millbrook this Saturday

Dutchess County Executive Marcus J. Molinaro will be the guest speaker at the Grace Church in Millbrook on Saturday, April 28th at 6pm as part of the Grace Church's Speaker Series. County Executive Molinaro will discuss the challenges facing Dutchess County and host a question and answer session with participants. A reception will follow.

The Grace Church Speaker Series is an opportunity for experts and leaders to address major social issues and allows people to come together in intelligent conversation about complex issues.

The event is open to the public and all are welcome. The Speaker Series event and reception will be held in the Grace Church Parish Hall located at 3330 Franklin Avenue, Millbrook. For more information, contact Grace Church at 677-5414.
