

STATEMENT FROM COUNTY EXECUTIVE MARCUS J. MOLINARO

as the Hudson Valley Renegades ready for final game of the NYPL League Championship
tonight at Dutchess Stadium

“Congratulations to the Hudson Valley Renegades for advancing to the New York-Penn League championships against the Tri-City ValleyCats! Tonight is the final game in the best of 3 Championship series and it is all on the line! The energy and excitement was palatable in Dutchess Stadium last night as the Renegades kept all of us on the edge of our seats with their thrilling come-from-behind victory.

Join me and thousands of friends and neighbor for the excitement and magic of this Championship game. It's time to show our 'boys of summer' how much we support them and root Dutchess County's own Renegades to victory!

The Hudson Valley Renegades are part of what makes Dutchess County special, thrilling thousands of fans all summer long with fun and good times. Playing in the NYPL League Championship brings visitors to our area and gives residents one more reason to feel good about living in Dutchess County. When the Renegades win, we all win! Hope to see you tonight at the Dutch. Let's Go Gades!”
